

White Sulphur Main Street Names Handmade Quilt Winner

The quilt was made and donated by Monica Foos, owner of James Wylie Bed & Breakfast.

The proceeds from this fundraiser will help fund the Third Thursday events that are a project of the White Sulphur Springs Main Street organization, under the direction of the promotional committee.
